DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 - "and/or" in line 13 renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear if only one or both of the direction of motion is required.

Further, the phrase "preferably" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

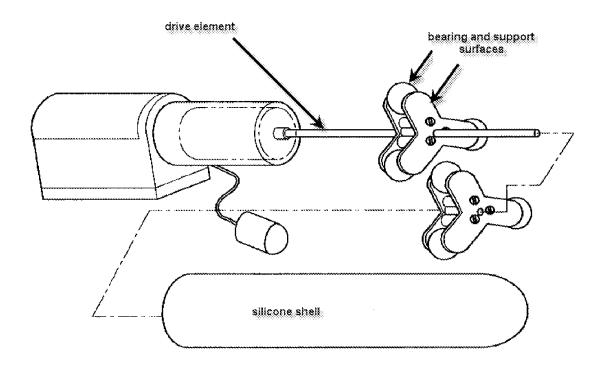

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 3735

Claims 1-3 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chen (6,632,185).

Claim 1 - a shell, drive element, bearing and support surfaces are set forth in Figure 2. The shell is made of silicone which is a rubber-elastic material. The oscillation is in the peripheral direction as the bearing surfaces rotate about the drive element. The examiner is taking the claim to only require oscillation in one direction because of the "and/or" language. The language "preferably phase-delayed" is not required, only preferable.

Claim 2 - the device includes a plurality of bearing and support surfaces driven by the drive element.

Art Unit: 3735

Claim 3 - the examiner is considering the three armed support surfaces as jaws for holding the bearing surfaces.

Claim 11 - the drive element is a single shaft.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-10 and 12-23 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US Patents and Patent Application Publications 4,162,675, 6,402,710, 2006/0069330 and 2006/0047181 teach related massaging appliances.
